Mr. Bowyer Inspires Students

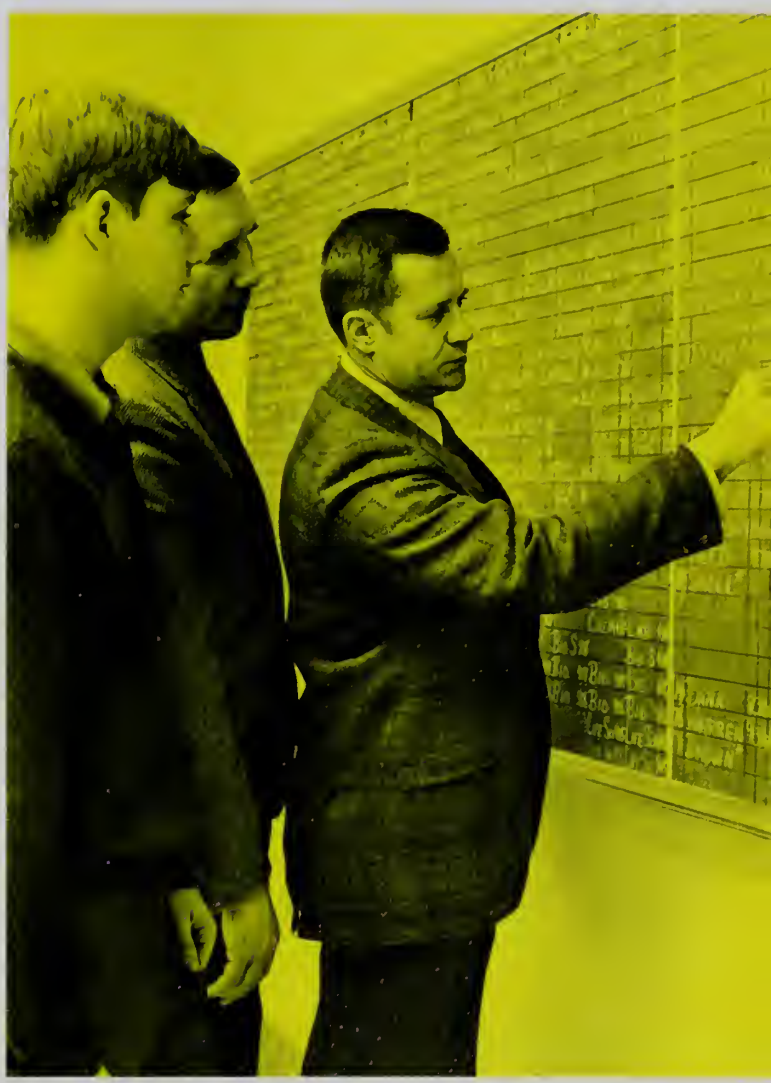

Intelligence shyly grins itself out of the front office, clears its throat, hitches up its pants, and proceeds to gently inspire and awe usually blasé students with an inexhaustible search for meanings and knowledge.

An innocent "little boy look" adjusts a new tie, and those around applaud the results. For inspiration, for humor, for goodness, for sincerity, for genuine interest, we thank you. For helping us understand the past and interpret the present, we shall ever be grateful.

Focus On Worlds Of Your Own

Go ahead . . . be carefree . . . spread your happiness to someone who may be sad . . .
ride the bus to school each morning . . .
study extra hard for that test . . . smile,
cry, and be proud because you have won . . .
just think about the happiness and joy tomorrow may bring.

Bewildered Faces Appear In The Crowd

As summer wanes, schools are again ready for old and new students to return for another year of learning and having fun.

The beginning of school finds many of First Colonial's students looking puzzled as they try to find their way around the maze of halls. A sigh and a relieved face appear when the new student sees an old friend. Despite the fact that this companion may also be lost, the fear is drowned by the conversation as the two fade into the crowd.

Day by day, these students and many others are getting acquainted with First Colonial, what it is, and what it means to be a part of the school's activities. New friends and new ideas are easily molded into the students as the year progresses.

Thoughts Are In Motion

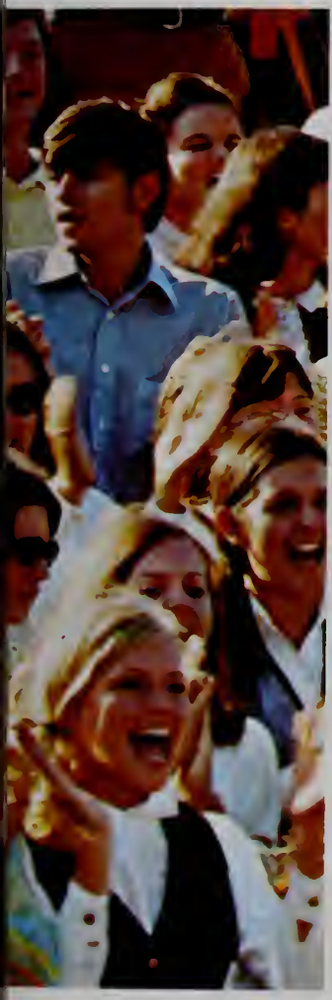

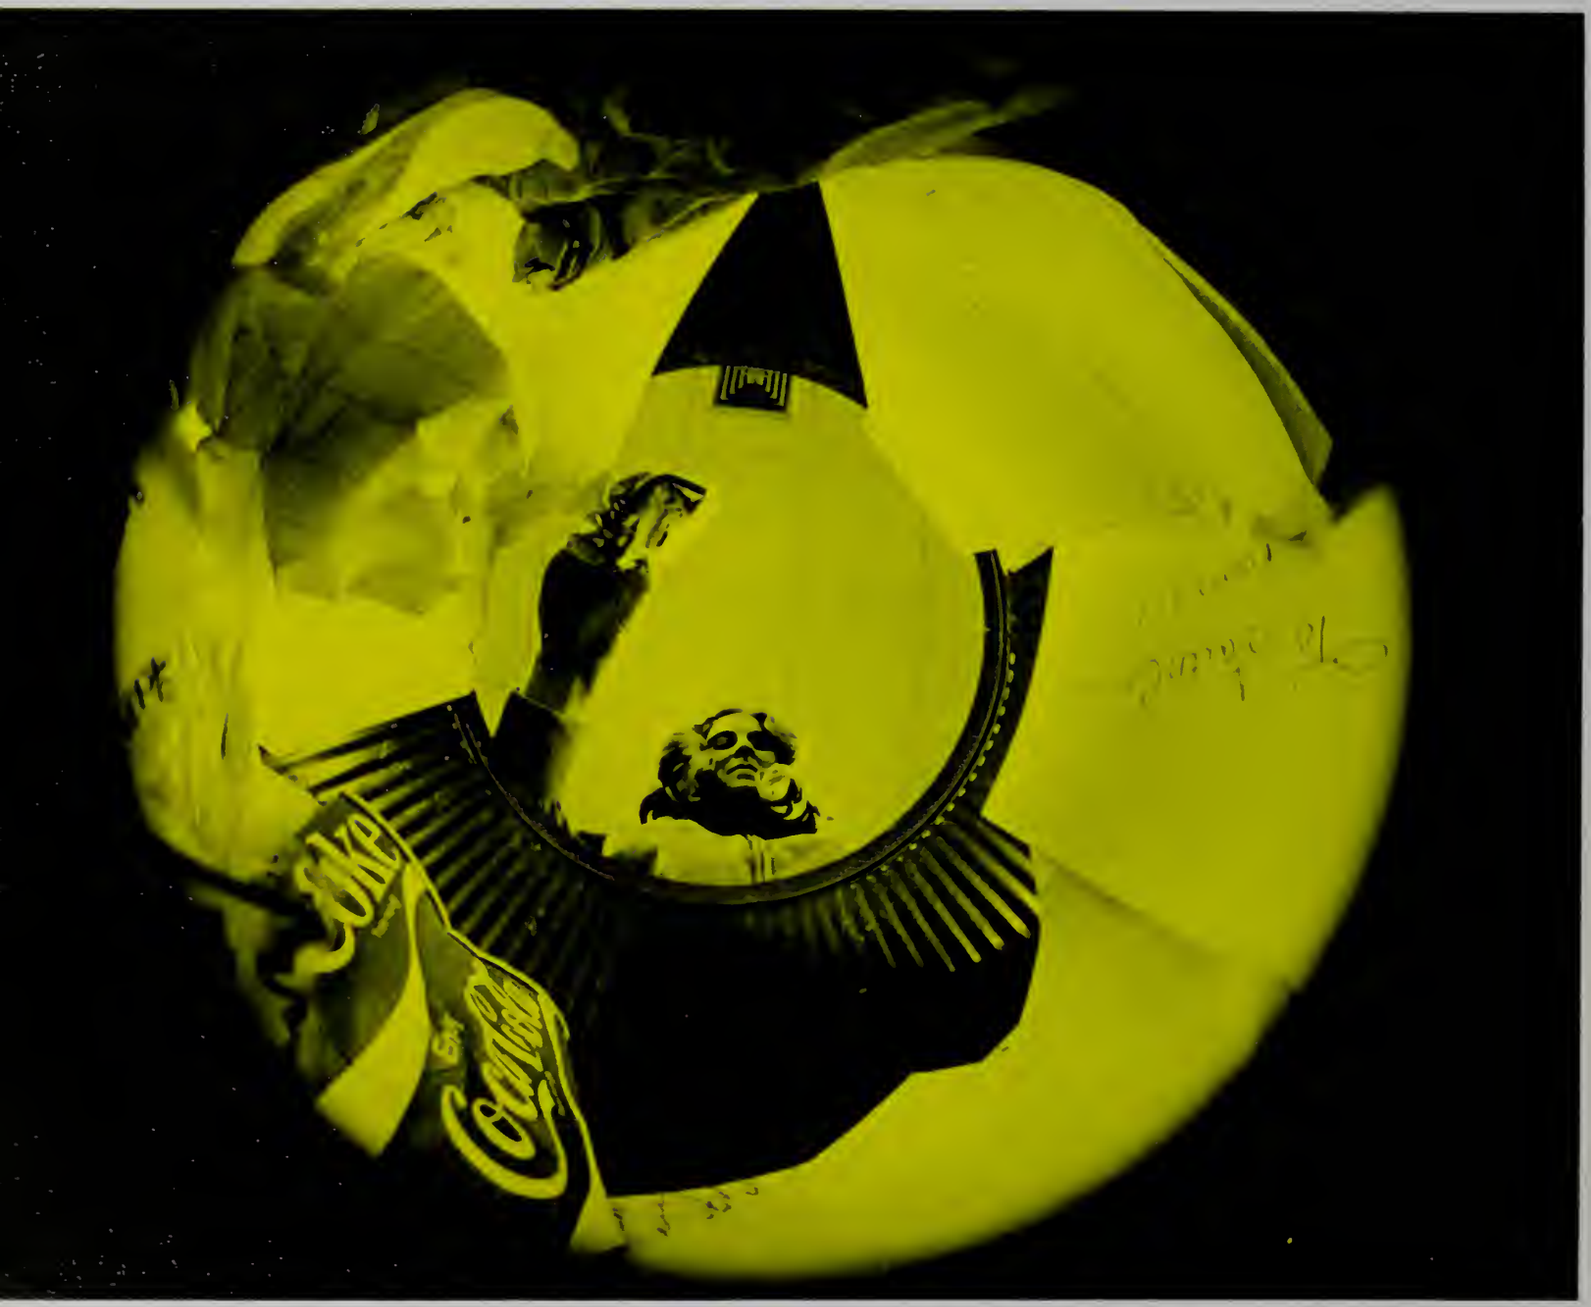

Laugh again . . . over some silly little thing you said in class yesterday . . . think of the rewarding times you spent in study hall . . . remember the great meals served during lunch . . . recall the times your class won the spirit cannon . . . recollect the moments everyone sang along with the band as it played a tune . . . cheer your friends, tell a joke, and add laughter to the day.

Winter Brings Signs Of

Worry to Students

As winter approaches, the faces which were once confused now show traces of worry over mid-term exams and various opponents in football and basketball games. All other thoughts are temporarily put aside; soon these expressions become overshadowed. Sadness due to losing matches to rivals and failing exams is replaced by happiness as F.C.'s students look forward to the events in the spring such as the Colonial Ball, the talent show, and the Miss First Colonial Pageant.

Let Yourself Move Through Understanding And Inspiration

Be brave . . . discuss that problem with your teacher or coach . . . learn from others and listen to their advice which may not be so bad after all . . . work your hardest because you will be the one who benefits from it the most . . . get out there and support your team . . . be proud and show your school spirit.

The End Of The School Year Leads To A New Beginning

Blue skies, flowers in bloom, and balmy days remind us that another summer is here. School days are left behind as many members of our student body begin new activities—working, surfing, swimming, or just sun-bathing. Old acquaintances are long remembered after each of us depart from F.C. Our youthful faces soon show signs of concern, happiness, anxiety, and joy. Although our expressions are changing through the years, our hearts and our loyalty will not. We shall always cherish the thoughts of our many experiences which we enjoyed at First Colonial.

STAFF

Mr. E.E. Brickell
Division Superintendent

First Colonial is indeed fortunate to be under the jurisdiction of a Division Superintendant of Schools who is held in such high esteem as Mr. E.E. Brickell. Holding a B.A. in English from The College of William and Mary and his Masters in English from the University of Chicago, member of Phi Beta Kappa, and featured speaker for the National Academy of School Executives, Mr. Brickell is renowned for his excellence in the field of Education.

Mr. E. Carlton Bowyer
First Colonial's Principal '69 — '70

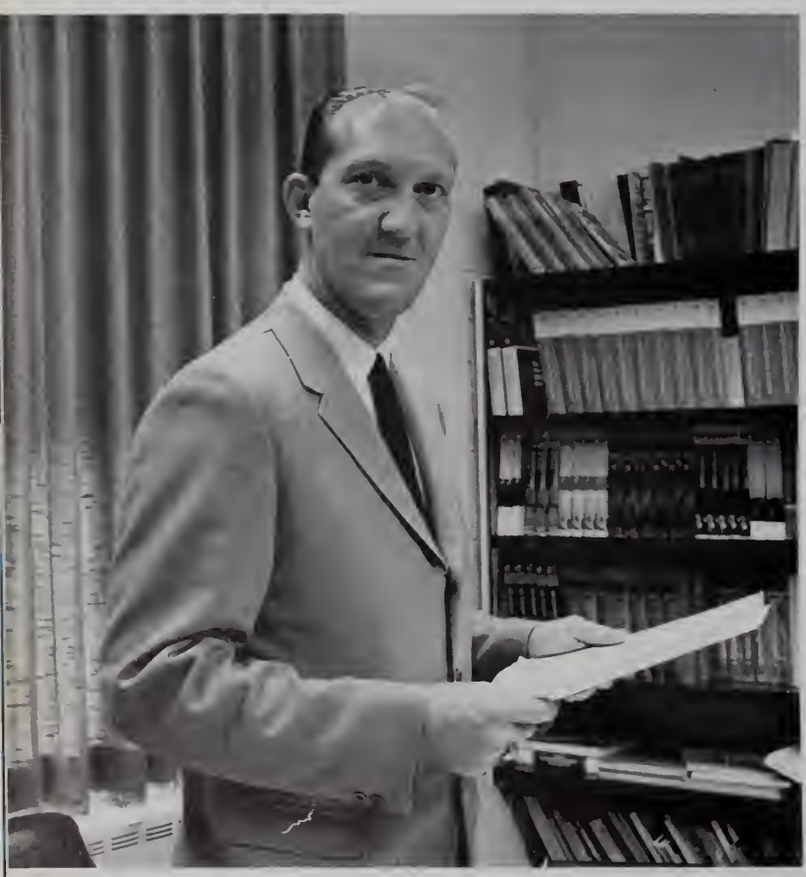

This is the second year First Colonial has had Mr. E. Carlton Bowyer as its principal. He received his A.B. and M.S. from Wofford College. Formerly Assistant Principal of First Colonial under Mr. James C. Mounie, Mr. Bowyer is experienced with the organization and management of the faculty, administration, and student body. Our success as the largest Virginia Beach High School surely can be accredited to Mr. Bowyer's excellent performance as our principal.

Guidance Found Through Class Counselors

Schedule changes, recommendations, testing scores, and college applications all keep our guidance counselors more than busy. Guidance given to each individual helps determine the future plans of the F.C. student. College afternoon sponsored by the guidance department gave interested students an insight into the many colleges represented. The counselor's job is a difficult and involved one sincerely appreciated by First Colonial. Their office is equipped and organized for the benefit of those who walk in for advice.

Mrs. Marguerite Shelly, School Treasurer

Mrs. Jacquetta P. Robinson (Asst. Librarian), Mrs. Nancy Todd, Mrs. Nancy Bagnell, Eileen Wiggs (Asst. Librarian).

Librarians Offer Help

To encourage maximum use of the library and create a relaxed atmosphere, the librarians have added soft music for the students to study by. This is the latest addition to the library and seems to blend very well with its vast variety of materials.

English Department Largest At F.C.

First Colonial's English Department, headed by Mrs. Owens, begins a new program this year for the advanced students in each grade. Emphasis is placed on student discussion and paperback books replace the regular text books. Shakespearian plays produced by professionals offer special highlights to each of the courses offered for the vast study in literature.

Variety of Subjects In Social Studies Department

First Colonial's Social Studies Department encompasses one of the greatest varieties of subjects. The Department provides courses in American and World History, Geography, Sociology, Government, Economics, and International Relations. Psychology has also been added to the curriculum this year. To cover this range of subjects are fourteen teachers under the supervision of the Departmental Chairman, Mrs. Houck. Together with a combination of field trips, guest speakers, mock elections, and the latest in visual aids, the Social Studies Department brings the student from early times to a well informed today.

The Math Department at First Colonial prepares the student for the problems facing him in the computer age. With a variety of subjects ranging from basic math to advanced calculus, the student often can choose his course of study. Under the direction of Mr. Liedholdt, a fine staff of teachers provides the students with the latest mechanics of numbers. Last year the Department adopted all new text books, and the revised curriculum continues to offer first class courses.

Science Inspires F.C.

The Science Department helps prepare the students for life in an ever increasing technological and scientific world through the process of logical thinking and development of the inquiring mind. Emphasis is placed on basic fundamentals and on almost daily developments in science as reported by the news media. The rising generations must have an understanding of the scientific developments that will have a tremendous impact upon their lives. Captain Hood stresses these ideals in his superlative direction as Head of the Science Department.

Busy Teachers Promote Language Fluency

First Colonial adds a special touch to its language department this year with the addition of Mrs. Ingeborg Peters to its staff. She is from Germany and studied at the Sorbonne in Paris. This year's use of the A-LM system successfully continues to benefit the student. Heading the Department, Mr. Rountree encourages organized program and intensive drilling for foreign language study at F.C.

Home Ec. Focuses On Child Care and Homemaking

The Home Economics Department provides its students with the ideals of good homemaking. This is developed in areas such as family relations, interior design, consumer education, and especially child care. The basic skills of cooking and sewing still rank high, and the Future Homemakers of America (FHA) are an asset to the Department.

Art Becomes The "Basic Design"

Art is thought seeking to understand the world and to make it understood. The Art Department at First Colonial strives to help the students understand art. Mrs. Lowenthal and Mrs. Groves provide a team teaching system for the second successful year. Introducing a new program, the Art Department replaced Art I with a course of Basic Design. Basic Design inspires creativity and develops artistic minds thus making art a prominent part of F.C.'s curriculum.

General Fitness Stressed by P.E.

Girls expressing themselves through gymnastics and boys leaping over hurdles—these are familiar scenes in the P.E. area. In keeping with its goal of promoting good health, general fitness, and proper physical development, the Physical Education department offers instruction in team and individual sports. Team sports stress sportsmanlike conduct while individual sports concentrate on activities which the students can practice to improve their co-ordination.

A smile, a tear, blue robes, our Alma Mater, and distant recollections of past years accompanied the Class of '70 as they approached graduation. The Seniors left with mixed emotions and memories of the hot tuxedos and lacy, long gowns at the Junior Ring Dance and the Senior Prom, bruises, cuts, and laughs from Powder Puff, announcements, caps and gowns, and the long-awaited diploma. To seniors, they were main events, but to underclassmen they are events yet to be remembered. Our Senior Year, an end yet a beginning, came to a close for the Class of '70 and it faded into realities of what was or the hopes of what might have been. We leave not with regret, but with hope and sincere thanks to our dear sponsor, Mrs. Barbara Owens.

CLASSES

The Class of '71 Is Out To Prove Itself

The Junior Class began this year's activities with several spirited class meetings to organize their strategy. The Class of '71 sold Mums for Homecoming. The float which was entered in the Liberty Bowl Parade was exciting and different. The Junior Ring Dance was the highlight of the school year for all of us. This spring activity was financed by selling chocolate during February.

Spirit Unites Class of '73

The Freshmen class displayed their spirit by spending several hours preparing for Homecoming festivities. "Ring Out the Titans" was the theme for their float which placed second in the float competition. The class showed its spirit throughout the year and, later on, sponsored a dance open to all classes.

Class of '74 Is Oriented to First Colonial

This year served as a prelude for important years to come for the eighth graders. Each student became interested in the courses he was taking, realizing that this year, as well as those to follow, was an essential road to the realization of his goal. Time out from studies was alloted for the autumn bake sale and participation in the Liberty Bowl activities. An important contribution of the eighth graders was their unfailing spirit, which helped to promote better school spirit. All agree that this years' eighth grade was an asset to First Colonial High School.

Winecoff Paces F.C. Offense

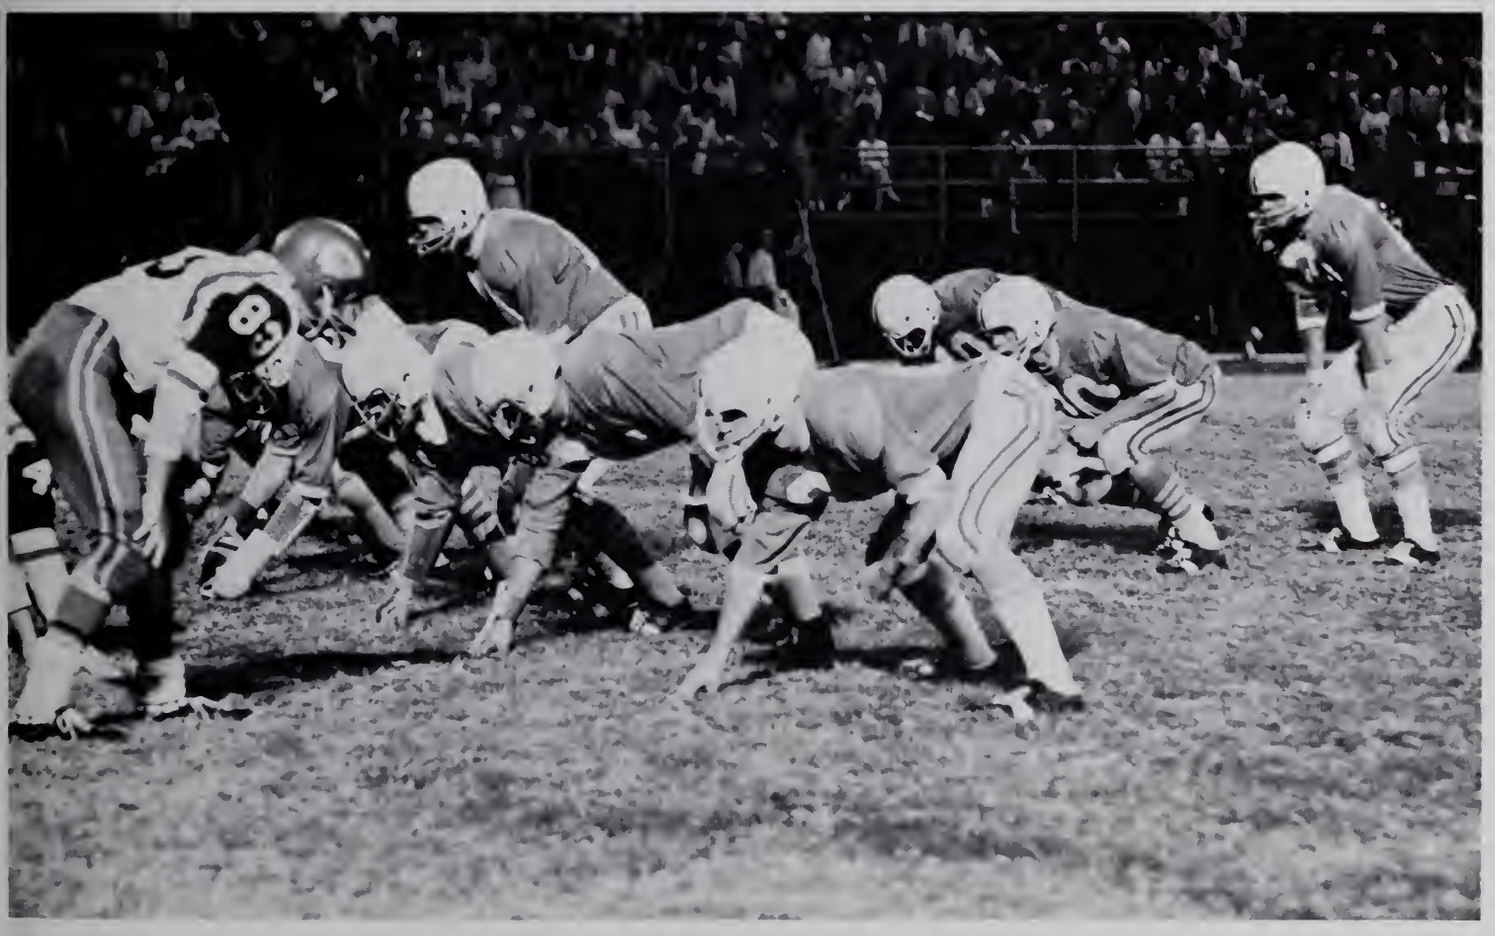

The winning of a game depends on a well thought-out game strategy.

Winecoff searches for receiver while under mounting pressure.

Game plays are carried into the anxious offensive squad.

The Patriot line gets set to pick up crucial third down yardage.

Malvern Wyche runs back an interception.

An official signals another First Colonial touchdown.

A time-out provides a welcome break in the game's action.

Tension Builds As Season Comes To A Close

Under the leadership of our four capable co-captains, the '69 Patriots set out to uphold their Eastern District Title. The Patriots proved to be tough in all their games, but failed to beat three of their rivals ending the season with a 5-2-3 record. Several members of our mighty team placed on the Tidewater All Star Team while others received football scholarships to various colleges.

The team is indeed proud of their records, achievements, and Coaches Frank Webster, Fred Britton, Stuart Douglas, and Ted Phelps.

The hard-fighting 'cage' team pulled many upsets with close scores and nerve-racking overtimes. The boys practiced hard and long as Coach Keeffe encouraged them from the sidelines. The team was led by such outstanding players as Co-Captain Tom Couch, Co-Captain Rick Deiss, Jesse Joyner, and Rick Malbon. Excitement and high hopes were the two main factors that enforced the Patriots' winning season. Daily drills and hard work were rewarded by the team's record of wins and losses.

Fans faithfully follow the J.V. team.

Young students, primarily from the ninth and tenth grades, make up the J.V. team. Coached by Mr. Pat Ricks, these small but determined players, gained experience as the season progressed. Many good team members, working together, rolled up an impressive record as they won many games. In later years, with added height and skill the team will be one that First Colonial will long remember.

No-hitter Highlights Baseball Season

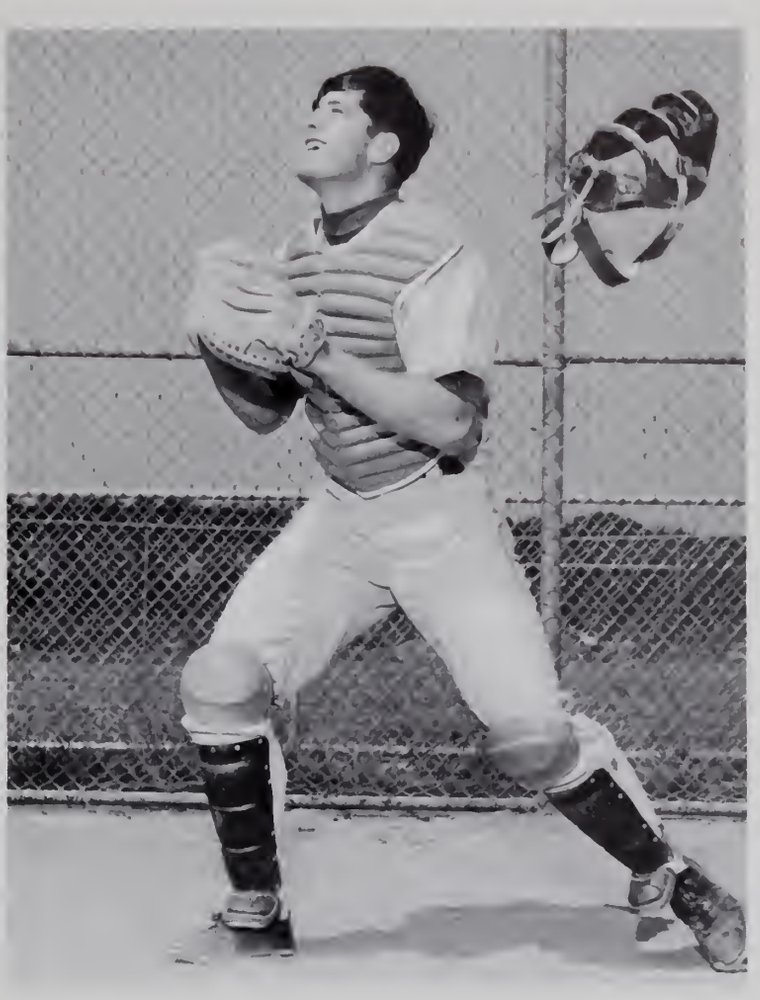

Experience was the key factor for the Varsity Baseball Team last year. In the areas of pitching and batting, First Colonial players developed strongly. Coach Shackleford plans to concentrate extensive drills toward perfecting the team's record in the future. The season's highlight was a no-hitter pitched by Huck Keeney against Norview. This game marked First Colonial's first no-hitter in its three-year history.

First Row: S. Taylor, H. Keeney, M. Branich, E. Stovall, J. Johnson, J. Peters. Second Row: Coach Shackelford, G. Vaderson, M. Gaskins, J. Strokharb, D. Durden, J. Wilson, D. Barfield.

Cross Country Paces To A 2-2 Season

Coach Keeffe's Cross Country Track team sped its way through several long-distance meets testing its strength and stamina. It was not unusual this year to see young athletes running in perfect rhythm along First Colonial Road. These dedicated young men were training for Cross Country. Many members of the team have won awards for their outstanding performances. All of the boys helped in the scoring and many of them tallied consistently.

Super Keeffe!!

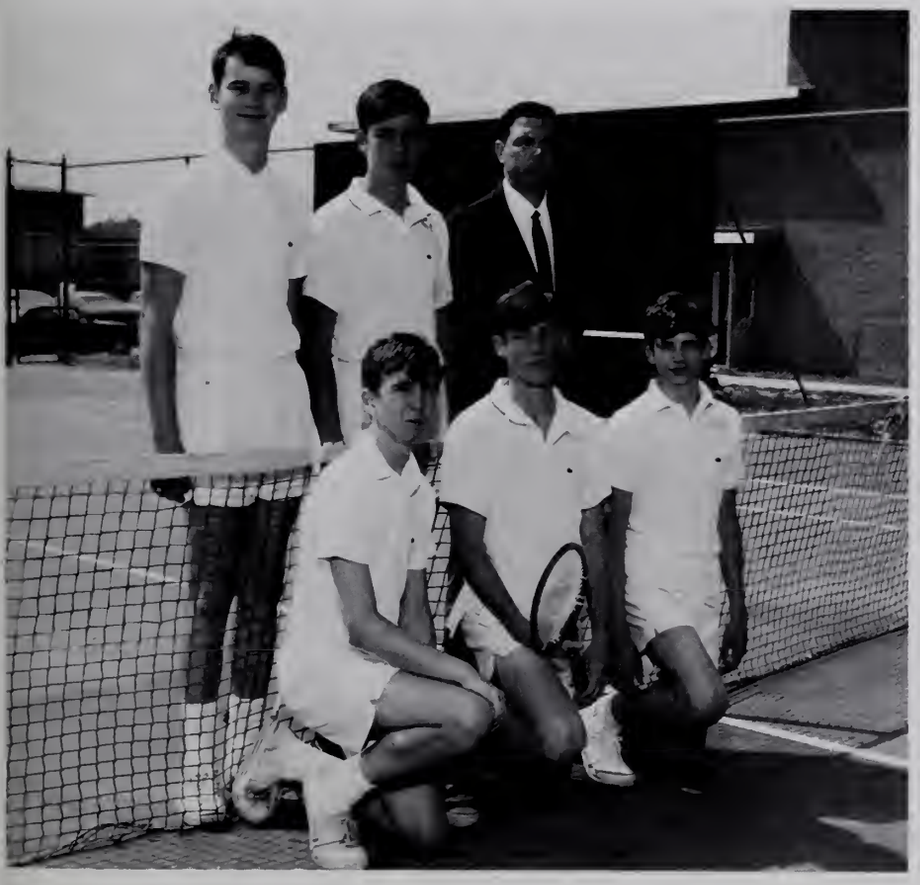

Mary Kolodziej goes in for a drive.

Hockey Team Continues To Pose A Threat

Several of the girls of our Hockey Team placed on all-Star Teams–Gloria Berry, Roxie Harris, and Laura Gallup. The team, directed by Miss Clark, did a fine job this year as they tromped over many of their rivals and finished with a 7-3-2 record. Interest in participation and support has added much to this team's success.

Returning Starters Promise A Strong Team

Under the direction of Coaches Roberson and Marshall, a young tennis squad built a fine reputation for good sportsmanship and acute play. All of the starting members of the team will return . . . . . Roxy Reed, Ray Garrison, Billy Ellis, Doug Harriman, Keith Ellis, and Dennis McLaughlin.

Track Teams Dominate District

Indoor Track

The outdoor track team of '68-'69 won the City and Eastern Distict Meets and were undefeated in the Duel Meet. Norman Williams, Tommy Martin, Mike Vaughn, and Les Whitehorn were among the outstanding members of the team. Led by Coach Ron Etheridge, the team proves to be just as successful in their meets this year.

First Row: R. LeGard, J. Bogden, J. Apple, B. Vasile, B. Gleason, J. Anderson, C. Holbert, D. Johnson. Second Row: R. Etheridge, R. Britton, G. Greenwood, C. Alexander, B. Whesdos, R. Strokhorb, B. Watson, S. Filmore, E. Johnson, C. Ericson, J. Hardisty.

Outdooor Track

Coach Etheridge also led the Indoor Track Team in a successful year. They went undefeated in the Duel Meet. The Tri-Captains, Norman Williams, Tommy Martin, and Bob Cowan did a splended job throughout the entire season.

First Row: J. Bowersox, J. Apple, E. Johnson, V. Napolitano, J. Bogden, B. Rice, N. Williams, S. Jordan, J. Martin, J. Anderson, J. Grimstead, B. Watson, B. Newson. Second Row D. McMannis, M. Girls Build Poise And Grace In Gymnastics

Girls Gymnastics differs entirely from Boys Gymnastics. Emphasis is placed on poise, balance, and style. The beauty of the exercises is created by the need for complete self-control and individuality in performing complicated routines.

Joanne Delaney and Jeanne Price show their tremendous skill on the parallel bars.

Golf Team Shows Strength Late In Season

The Golf Team compiled a 4-4-1 season this year. The season was highlighted by Greg Overton's tie for first in the regional tournament. Also a valuable asset to the team was freshman Dean Hurst who qualified for the Regional Tournament. Returning starters promise a strong team for next year's competition.

John Comninaki tees off.

Rebecca Martin Is Crowned Liberty Bowl Queen

Homecoming, an anticipated event, commenced with Spirit Week. Each class displayed their spirit in a variety of ways on their assigned days. November seventh finally arrived, and each class put the finishing touches on their floats, which were displayed in our Liberty Bowl Parade. The floats were then taken to school to await half-time and the crowning of the queen. The F.C.-Lake Taylor game was one of great tension, as Lake Taylor took the lead. Enthusiasm rose during halftime, as the announcer revealed the winners of Spirit Week. Then Angie O'Gorman, 1968 Homecoming Queen, crowned Rebecca Martin as queen for 1969. After the ceremony the dance, "Revolution 1776", highlighted the evening.

Honored Students Receive Recognition

The class of 1970 has 73 honor students led by Leslie Hladky and Larry Pulley. Leslie Hladky received the honor of valedictorian through her conscientious efforts throughout her years at First Colonial. The position of salutatorian was earned by Larry Pulley through his efficient efforts. Larry was the one student selected from our Congressional District to represent us in The Presidential Classroom in Washington, D.C. Larry attended seminars and workshops which increased his knowledge on government legislation. Titles won by Larry and Leslie are much sought after by all students. Both students are deserving of their awards.

Leslie Hladky excels in her French class as in the others.

First Colonial was proud to send three students Rick Holliday, Debbie Bailey, and Chris Wall to Lake Taylor High School to participate in the All State Chorus. They were among the thirty-five students selected from the Eastern District. They practiced diligently with the help of Mr. Miller, the choral director. The students' vocal abilities deserved recognition. First Colonial was honored to have them represent us.

Doors blossom with a Christmas design.

Monogram clubbers contribute a festive tune.

Many faces of Christmas were seen this year at First Colonial. Each homeroom door was brightly decorated and food donated by students was placed under our traditional tree in the foyer. To add to the festivities, Christmas carols could be heard in the halls and in the cafeteria. Intra-school cards could be sent with a Christmas seal. The week was highlighted by the annual choral concert and band concert.

The beautifully decorated tree adds a traditional touch to the foyer.

Interested Drama Students Present Play

Miss Gore gives individual instructions and directions.

The cast thinks seriously of the project.

Dean Pulley rehearses his lines for the play.

The school play, The Madwoman of Chaillot, was presented to the public on April 23 and 24. The plot revolves around Countess Aurelia, portrayed by Joy Haywood. The Countess believed all crime, war, and trouble had been eliminated. She suddenly realized that the world was not free from this troubled condition. Aurelia tried mankind and finding them guilty of money worshipping, sentenced them to death.

Other cast members were Linda Lister, Aprileona Lawson, Lynn Gibbons, Rick Holladay, Janice Cullen, Garry Moore, Dean Pulley, and Mike Lambertson.

Fondly We Remember Past Events

The theme of the Junior Ring of 1969 was "The Wizard of Oz". The dance was highlighted by three bands—the Aliens, the Royal Seven, and the Hunger. Leading from the foyer to the gym was a flowered-covered bridge constructed by the decoration committee. The pictured girls, chosen from the sophomore class, hosted this special event. Dressed as munchkins, the sophomore girls served refreshments, checked coats, and gaily added to the land "over the rainbow".

This year's Faculty Follies was presented the end of March with as much enthusiasm and individuality as past shows have had. Directed by Mrs. Betty Rogers, all departments participated in the show written by Jay Tugwell and Alice Widman. The theme of Follies '70 was television and its influence on today's youth. Skits from "Mission: Impossible", "Hee Haw", "Disneyland", and "Dark Shadows" featured the faculty and administration in humorous rolls. Spot commercials added a touch of witticism to the show. In many instances, the resemblance between the faculty member and his role was more realistic than intended!

Mrs. Dickinson, Miss Wilson, Mr. Pugh, and Miss Gore rehearse for the Follies.

The Work Of Individuals And Groups Creates Successful Moments

The Original Film Festival of 1970 was sponsored by EGG, Inc. It was organized by the eleventh grade students of Miss Widman's first and fourth bell classes. The students, in order to finance the organization, conducted several money-making projects which included window-washing, selling mistletoe, and selling eclipse viewers. The festival was open to students or groups of students willing to enter their self-made films. This event was held in the spring and was representative of the creative talents of the various participants.

Mr. John Webster was the sponsor of the event, and Pam Brothers and Pat Pantalo were two hard-working chairmans. There was a large variety of talents such as singing, modern dancing, piano recitals, and humorous skits. Several of the acts included guitars or a backup band, The show displayed the creativity and special interests of those who made themselves a part of the competition.

Stephanie Slovic Reigns As Colonial Ball Queen

The Colonial Ball Dance, which was held the end of April was a much celebrated event. The music was provided by area bands which kept the pace of the evening lively. S.C.A. Motivates Student Interest

The Student Cooperative Association, serving as a link between the faculty and the student body, voiced opinions of fellow students on various policies. The S.C.A. teaches responsibility, builds leaders, encourages achievements, and promotes open-mindedness.

Uniting the entire student body is the major duty of the S.C.A. A series of assemblies throughout the year helped achieve this goal. Spirit Week and the Miss First Colonial Pageant were sponsored by the S.C.A. this year.

Beta Tri—Hi—Y Serves Community

The 1969-1970 school year was a busy one for Beta Tri-Hi-Y. Beta's officers and members attended various conferences in the Tidewater area to learn effective leadership and efficient workmanship. One of the highlights of the year was the trip to Richmond for the annual Tri-Hi-Y's model General Assembly.

Community and service projects were the main objective of the club. These included selling thin mints for World Service, providing a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family, and a Christmas party for underprivileged children. To finance these projects, Beta held bake sales, a car wash, and a dance after a basketball game.

Marching Band Enters Tobacco Festival

Each week during football season, the marching band performed before large audiences and never failed to entertain the crowd with the precision drills and dancing. This year Mr. Levi took charge of the band and initiated many new drill patterns. The band practiced long and hard each afternoon in order to insure a great performance each week.

Majorettes

Stepping out to lead the Patriot marching band was a corp of six majorettes. This year for the first time the girls twirled fire. Under the leadership of head majorette Barbara Land, the corp delighted the crowds where ever the band traveled with fancy twirling and marching. Suzi Fulgham was feature twirler this year.

Students in parade formation.

Although football season ended in November, the First Colonial High School Band remained active throughout the winter and into the spring. The band learned and perfected music ranging from classical to very modern. In addition to playing for pep rallies and other assemblies, the Concert Band held its annual Christmas and Spring Concerts. Through each members efforts and cooperation, the Band had a successful year this year.

First Row: C. Wall, D. Durden, B. Litchfield. Second Row: L. Pulley, R. Garrison, K. Ellis.

This year First Colonial was fortunate to send six representatives to Boys State. The boys were chosen on the basis of qualities of leadership, scholastic ability, and character. These boys spent an exciting week at the College of William and Mary.

First Colonial also sent four representatives to Girls State, which is sponsored by the American Legion this year. While at Radford College the girls learned much about their American government and heritage. All of First Colonial's representatives agreed it was an experience that they would never forget.

Acknowledgements

The 1970 Heritage was published with the help and understanding of many individuals. My thanks first go to all the members of the annual staff whose endless hours of work made this book possible. Thanks are also extended to our sponsors Mrs. Gwen Infantino and Mr. Jerry Loar for their guidance throughout the year and the ideas they inspired. I thank Mr. John Perry, Hunter Publishing Company representative, whom we consider an integral part of our staff. Photographic suggestions, candid shots, and Senior portraits deserve a special thanks to Mr. McIntosh and his assistants. Finally, I would like to acknowledge Mr. Carlton Bowyer, principal, without whose inspiration this annual would not have been possible. Thank you students, administration, faculty, patrons, and advertisers.
